

SUMMER INSTITUTE

RECERTIFICATION COURSES FOR NONPUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS

Good teachers know that education is a lifelong journey. To help you continue your quest for knowledge and fulfill your recertification requirements, the state of Maryland has provided funding for nonpublic school educators to attend these summer courses.

All courses have been approved by the Maryland State Department of Education and are eligible for up to 3 credits toward Maryland recertification. Nonpublic school educators have the option of enrolling in one or both weeks and may choose one course in each week of the Institute.

COURSE LISTING

More course topics will be announced soon.

Accommodating Special Needs Students in the Regular Classroom

Assessments for Teaching Reading (ELEM)
Current Topics in Technology

Federal Programs Services to Private School Students
Gifted Students with Special Learning Needs

Introduction to Leadership for Nonpublic School Administrators

Methods of Teaching Reading in the Content Area (HS parts 1 and 2) PENDING APPROVAL

NASA Science Course

Processes and Acquisition of Reading (ELEM)

Strategies for Teaching Boys (in Urban Areas)

Teaching the Gifted

Using Data to Lead School Improvement

DATES & LOCATIONS

WEEK 1: June 18 - 21, 2012

NASA Goddard Center, Greenbelt, MD
St. John Regional School, Frederick, MD
St. Pius X Regional School, Bowie, MD
Saints Peter and Paul, Easton, MD
Online courses

WEEK 2: June 25 - 28, 2012

Center for Jewish Education, Baltimore, MD
NASA Goddard Center, Greenbelt, MD
Online courses

COST

For educators employed by a nonpublic school located in Maryland, there is a $10 per course registration fee.

For teachers employed in nonpublic schools located outside of Maryland, there is a $60 per course registration fee.

REGISTRATION

Registration opens on April 17, 2012. Priority will be given to teachers teaching in Maryland.

Register online at:

www.midatlanticcsc.org/summer